DELIRIUM MUSICUM ABOUT

Founded in 2018, Delirium Musicum is a self-conducted chamber orchestra that pulses with ferocious passion and infuses L.A.'s electric energy into every performance, disrupting expectations and redefining “classical” music as the new red-hot concert experience. A 21st-century musical phenomenon, Delirium Musicum breathes fire into masterworks from the Baroque to the music of tomorrow, delivering a concert experience that radiates with fierce and unapologetic creative fervor. Led by violinist and Artistic Director Etienne Gara, Delirium Musicum performances grab hold of concert-goers' emotions and don't let go. Expect an incandescent, visceral experience as you enjoy Delirium Musicum's eclectic artists making their musical magic.

The members of the L.A.-based ensemble represent the next wave of classical musicians. Dedicated to the highest artistic excellence and leadership, these multifaceted performers (representing 10 countries on 4 continents) cultivate gripping interactions with concert-goers. DM musicians make a point to engage intimately with audiences from all walks of life, creating a palpable bond through transcendent performances that inspire wild excitement and ecstasy.

DELIRIUM MUSICUM ARTISTIC DIRECTOR

Etienne Gara

French-born violinist Etienne Gara has performed extensively worldwide in some of the most renowned venues, including recurring international appearances at Itzhak Perlman's Chamber Music Festival. Dedicated to crossing musical boundaries, he appeared on Leonard Cohen's last album, collaborated with Benjamin Millepied and the LA Dance Project, founded the award-winning Sunset Club Trio, which combined violin with flamenco and electric guitar in arrangements of great classical repertoire, and created Sketches of Miles, a multi-stylistic exploration inspired by the work of Miles Davis. He is Artist-in-Residence at the Younes and Soraya Nazarian Center for the Performing Arts since 2021 and at the USC Brain & Creativity Institute since 2019, where he recorded his French Recital CD on the Leonora Jackson Stradivarius from 1714.

L.A. DANCE PROJECT PRESENTS

LADP Presents is the programming arm of L.A. Dance Project that provides the space and platform to uplift non-repertory works from affiliate artists and partners, including performances, film screenings, cross disciplinary projects, and educational and community focused initiatives.

Typically hosted at L.A. Dance Project's studio and theater space, LADP Presents is designed to expand the depth, breadth, and diversity of the dance community in Los Angeles by serving as an inclusive platform and cultural incubator for artists and audiences. Programming is curated by L.A. Dance Project and in collaboration with LADP Presents partners.

LADP Presents is committed to engaging new audiences, supporting collaboration, and serving as a resource for artists in Los Angeles and beyond. To submit a proposal for LADP Presents please contact info@ladanceproject.org.

L.A. DANCE PROJECT ABOUT

L.A. Dance Project is a non-profit dance company under the Artistic Direction of Benjamin Millepied. Founded in 2012, we opened the doors to our studio and performance space in Los Angeles' downtown arts district in 2017.

L.A. Dance Project is dedicated to the pursuit of artistic innovation and excellence in the realm of contemporary dance. Our mission is to explore the boundaries of movement, creativity, and expression. Through experimentation and collaboration, we strive to create captivating performances that challenge, provoke, and inspire audiences worldwide. Grounded in a commitment to artistic integrity and authenticity, we aim to cultivate a culture of curiosity, openness, and growth within our company and beyond. With humility and passion, we seek to contribute to the evolution of dance as a dynamic and transformative art form, enriching lives and fostering connections across cultures and communities.
